PARISIANS NEAR THE WAR ZONE.

Bourbon County People Traveling in Europe Heard From.

ARE NOT IN MUCH DANGER.

Will Have to Cut Out French and German Tour Because of War.

Much interest and some anxiety is being manifested here among the relatives and friends of the Paris people who sailed from New York on July 9, on the steamship Carpathia, for a European tour. It is probable that they are now in the war-troubled zone. Mrs. Sidney G. Clay and daughter, Miss Alice Rogers Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Thompson and son, sailed on the Carpathia, the same steamer which carried on its passenger list the Lexington Herald's contest winners. The party has been heard from indirectly, being in Naples, Italy. On the voyage out of New York they ran through three days of fog, the captain remaining on the bridge continuously. The only one of the party affected by sea sickness was Mr. James Thompson, Sr. Mr. Thompson, Jr., took part in all games aboard the ship, and won several of the sporting events. Mrs. Clay was ill for a short time, but soon recovered. They wrote that their trip to Germany would be side-tracked owing to the state of war prevailing there. Miss Fannie Johnson, of Paris, and Miss Anna Louise Best, of Millersburg, who are studying music in Berlin, had gone to London for a summer trip, and intended to return to Berlin for a year's stay, but owing to the state of war, and the difficulty in obtaining funds now their stay in London would be a matter of expediency. Mr. Chris. Grosche, formerly of Paris, and who has been conducting a bakery and confectionery business in Montgomery, Ala., for several years, left New York several days ago, in company with his wife, on the steamer Imperator, for a trip to Westphalia, Germany, to spend a month in revisiting the scenes of his youth in and around that historic Teuton country, and it is probable he will have some difficulty in returning. His sons, Henry, Will, Frank and Joseph, who reside here, have heard nothing from him, but are confident he will return safely.

The future route of the Paris party is a matter of doubt, and as war now actually exists between Germany and France, the party may not be allowed to travel in those countries.

BERLIN, GERMANY, Aug. 2.—An official statement issued to-day says: "In consequence of a Russian attack on German territory, Germany is in a state of war with Russia. The French reply to the German representation is of an unsatisfactory character."

"Moreover, France has mobilized and an outbreak of war with France must, therefore, be reckoned with any day or any moment."

Another statement declares that Russia has invaded Germany during a time of peace, "in flagrant contradiction of Russia's peaceful assurances."

RUSSIANS INVADE GERMANY. BERLIN, GERMANY, Aug. 2.—A Russian column, with artillery, has crossed the German frontier at Schwinden, southeast of Bialla.

Two squadrons of Russian Cossacks are riding in the direction of Johannesburg, in East Prussia, fifteen miles from the frontier.

A Russian patrol last night crossed the German frontier near Eichenreid, in Posen, and attacked the German guard at the railroad bridge over the Warthe. Two Germans were wounded. The attack was repulsed. The staff also announced the crossing of the frontier by a Russian column near Schwinden.

The above information, the statement adds, shows that Russia has invaded German territory and that war has actually begun.

SITUATION IN ITALY GRAVE. ROME ITALY, Aug. 2.—The war situation, is far as Italy is concerned more grave to-day. The censorship has succeeded in suppressing all news except a short, colorless official statement that "Italy is calm and will not mobilize, but will conform her conduct to treaty obligations."

ENGLAND IS PREPARING.

LONDON, ENGLAND, Aug. 2.—Germany, having invaded France, it is felt in London that the time for action on the part of England has arrived.

There is reason to believe that at the Cabinet meeting to-day preparations were completed for such instant action as the circumstances may demand.

The naval reservists were called

BOURBON CROPS BADLY IN NEED OF RAIN.

There is little of interest to engage the attention in the agricultural districts these mid-summer days. All lines of business are dull, and every one seems to be taking a rest which will insure renewed activity with the approach of autumn.

More rain is badly needed, though hard rains fell in some sections of the county last Sunday. Not a drop has fallen since, however, and some parts of the county had a very little rain then.

There is still a scarcity of fresh vegetables, gardens having literally dried up, and consumers must depend upon imported food stuffs to supply their tables.

The corn shows some improvement. Peaches are coming in plentifully, though they are small. Prices are going higher on vegetables, fruits, chickens and milk.

The coming of August marks the opening of the hunting season, but doves are scarce, at least in this locality. Two years' protection of this delicious table bird would insure a larger number for the sportsman's enjoyment. It is said that squirrels and rabbits are abundant. The presence of so many squirrels is rather surprising, for these little animals, like other game in this part of the State, have been diminishing. If the season were closed to them as to doves for a year or two, the woodlands and fields would be much more attractive to sportsmen.

WAISTS REDUCED.

C. P. COOK & CO.

BLUE GRASS NEEDS.

At a meeting of Lexington bankers Thursday morning it was decided that at least $1,000,000 will be immediately necessary for crop-moving uses in Lexington, and Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo was so advised by wire.

out at 3 o'clock this afternoon. This action confirms the belief that the British government is ready to take its part in the struggle.

INVASION OF FRANCE.

PARIS, FRANCE, Aug. 2.—German troops have crossed the French frontier at a point near the village of Cirey, between Nance and Strassburg, and the German soldiers who last night invaded the grand duchy of Luxembourg, neutral territory between Belgium and Germany, are reported as marching on the French fortified town of Longwy.

Apparently the German army is duplicating the first movement of the Franco-Prussian war.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 2.—The first conflict in the air in history was waged last night over the little village of Toul. At sunset the villagers were sent into a panic by the sight of a monster Zeppelin dirigible hovering above them.

It was momentarily expected that the war airship would drop bombs into the village, and excitement ran high when a French military aviator got his machine and rose to a great height above the Zeppelin and began riddling it with bullets.

The huge air craft fell to the ground and in descending the French aviator lost control of his monoplane, fell and was instantly killed.

MESSAGES CENSORED.

LONDON, ENG., Aug. 3.—The Commercial Cable Company sent out a statement to the effect that the British Secretary of State announced that messages sent from the United States to England would be subject to censorship.

AMERICANS IN EUROPE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.—The State Department officials admitted that the most serious problem confronting them was the plight of Americans abroad. They estimated that at least 100,000 and perhaps as many as 300,000 were scattered throughout Europe. The disorganization of European exchange has made it practically impossible to cash checks or letters of credit. American consulates, legations and embassies are devoid of funds for the emergency which has suddenly confronted them. They are being besieged on all sides with requests for financial assistance.

The only American warship in European waters are the little gunboat Scorpion, station ship at Constantinople, and the battleship Maine at Villafranche.

LONDON, ENG.—The position to be taken by the British Empire remained still to be defined this morning, but it was feared that Germany's seizure of Belgian territory would be a decided factor which would lead the Britons to take the sword in hand, as under the treaty of London in 1839 Great Britain stands pledged to maintain Belgium's neutrality. It is very probable that England will declare war on Germany.

ADD WAR.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 3.—A German banker crossing the frontier in an automobile containing $1,400,000 in gold was held up by French troops and the gold was taken from him. The banker was given a check on the Bank of France in exchange.

BECKHAM, CAMDEN, CANTRILL.

This Trio of Kentuckians To Grace the Halls of Congress.

ELECTION PASSED VERY QUIETLY.

Hon. Claude M. Thomas Defeated After Putting Up a Game Fight.

With nine counties still unheard from and reports from a number of others incomplete, returns received up to last midnight indicated the nomination of former Governor J. C. W. Beckham over Congressman A. O. Stanley by a plurality of 2,587 in Saturday's Democratic long-term Senatorial primary. The missing counties were for the most part of the mountain districts—principally the Tenth and Eleventh—the returns from which are generally the last to arrive.

Returns received from 111 out of 120 counties of the State gave the following totals: Beckham, 60,215; Stanley, 57,628; McCreary, 17,467. Thus counties reporting since Saturday midnight served to swell Mr. Beckham's plurality by 965.

Though Stanley clings desperately to the bare hope that the final count may give him a scant margin, belated returns which continue to come in to-day only strengthen Beckham's claims to have carried the State by 12,000 majority.

Beckham has carried 93 of the 120 counties. Eight of the eleven districts have given him a majority. His concession of three districts to Stanley, made by his campaign managers several days before the primary, has been borne out.

Governor McCreary's surprisingly poor race with scarcely a creditable representation anywhere, was a matter of much political comment to-day. The Governor's meager vote is conceded to have weighed heavily against Stanley's chances.

Beckham's battle cry, "right the wrong," referring to his former Senatorial ambitions and their denial at the hands of a Democratic Legislature, is believed to have been a big factor in his victory.

Johnson N. Camden's tremendous majority throughout the State for the short term nomination is an outstanding feature of the primary. Camden swept the entire State by a vote that is remarkable. Only the official returns can tell the story.

Among the Republican races for the big stakes that between Wilson and Ernst is still very close, though the former Governor is said to have a safe margin. Later returns tend to cut down his apparent lead of 2,000, and a few hundred votes may win the race when the count is all in.

Bullitt made a runaway of the short term nomination.

The Progressive vote in the State was so light that few reports of it were made. Burton Vance, of Louisville, had a comfortable lead over his opponent, Judge George W. Jolly, of Owensboro.

In the Democratic races the following winners and their majorities in round figures are given:

First District—Barkley, Dem., 2,700.

Second District—Kinchelee, Dem., 6,400.

Third District—Thomas, Dem., 2,000.

Fourth District—Johnson, Dem., 8,000.

Fifth District—Sherley, Dem., 9,200.

Sixth District—No contest.

Seventh District—Cantrill, Dem., 6,700.

Eighth District—No contest.

Ninth District—Falls, Dem., 6,000.

Tenth District—No contest.

Eleventh District—Powers, Rep., 8,000.

Aside from the Powers race in the Eleventh, there were only three other Republican Congressional races in the State. Bristow won by default in the Seventh; Ball won in the Fourth and Ireland in the Ninth. Gardner, Progressive, won in the Fifth by 1,000 majority.

BOURBON COUNTY.

The election in Paris and Bourbon County passed off quietly, it being the most orderly primary in the history of the county.

Complete returns in most of the races show the following results:

Senator for long term: Beckham 1,280; McCreary, 224; Stanley, 528.

Beckham over Stanley 752, over McCreary 1,056, over both 508.

For Congress: Thomas, 1,278; Cantrill, 833. Thomas' majority, 445.

For short term with four precincts out of twenty missing gives

Camden, 1,259; Smith, 50; Young, 69. Full returns will show Camden's ma-

EASIER TO SHIP
LIVE STOCK NOW.

New regulations governing the interstate movement of live stock became effective July 1, 1914. These changes are destined by the Department of Agriculture to facilitate the movement of live stock from quarantined areas or from public stockyards. The new regulations, which are known as B. A. I. (Bureau of Animal Industry) Order 210, superseding B. A. I. Order 143, deal with the shipment of cattle from tick-infected areas, with the movement of swine from public stockyards and with the dipping of cattle and sheep for scabbies.

Hereafter cattle that have been dipped once under State or Federal supervision may be shipped from an area quarantined for ticks to a market center where there are proper dipping facilities and the Department of Agriculture maintains an inspector. After a second dipping there under his supervision the cattle may be sold for any purpose. Hitherto it has been necessary in times of drouth for cattle owners in quarantine areas to slaughter their stock or sell it for slaughter for whatever it would bring. The resulting loss will, it is hoped, be done away with under the new regulation.

The provision permitting, under certain strict conditions, the transportation of hogs from public stockyards into interstate commerce has been made possible by the discovery by Government scientists of a serum which renders swine immune to hog cholera. Hitherto all stockyards have been considered as infected with this disease. Now, however, it is considered safe to permit the shipment of hogs which have been treated with the serum and which show no symptoms of suffering from any form of disease. As a result of this it is expected that thousands of light weight hogs will be sent from the stockyards to the country for feeding and fattening and that the country's total production of pork will be greatly increased thereby.

The new regulations also withdraw all permission for the use of nicotine solutions, coal-tar creosote, and cresol preparations in the official dipping of cattle and sheep for scabbies. This step has been made necessary by the difficulty experienced in keeping baths of this nature at a strength sufficient to eliminate all danger of disease without having them so strong as to be injurious to the animals themselves. The Department, therefore, decided to insist upon a field test for this purpose is available in the case of the sulphur sulphur used in lime in sulphur baths for scabbies, and for arsenious oxide in arsenical dips for cattle tick. Official dipping, therefore, will hereafter be confined to the lime-and-sulphur and arsenical baths.

GET INCREASED SALARIES.

Postmaster R. K. McCarney has received advices from the Postoffice Department at Washington notifying him of the raise in salaries allowed to the Rural Mail Carriers working out of the Paris Postoffice, effective July 1, 1914.

The Rural Free Delivery system was established in Bourbon County twelve years ago, and, at that time, the carriers assigned to Routes 1, 4 and 7 received the minimum, an annual salary of $600. Since then, however, the salaries have been steadily raised until they were made uniform and placed at $1,100.

Under the new arrangement the salaries are to be based on the actual number of miles covered by the carriers and the number of pieces of mail delivered by them. Effective July 1 the new salary schedule for the carriers in the local office was fixed as follows:

- No. 1—H. C. Whaley, $1,200.
- No. 2—R. P. Kenney, $1,200.
- No. 3—G. A. Harper, $1,200.
- No. 4—O. W. Miller, $1,128.
- No. 5—T. C. Whaley, $1,104.
- No. 6—O. T. Gibson, $1,152.
- No. 7—Morin Moore, $1,200.
- No. 8—W. F. Brown, $1,104.

WE MISS THE OLD FAIRS.

At this time of the year, the thoughts of the old timers always revert to the days when the Old Bourbon County Fair Association was in its glory. Formerly no county in the State had a bigger or better exhibition than Bourbon, and we often look back with regret to those times when we had splendid horse rings and trotting matches at the old track, which is now only a thing of memory. It does look like a county of the size of Bourbon should not be without a Fair Association, and we hope the time will come when an influential body of men will again take an interest in an enterprise of this character.

JOS. S. HEAD, JR., ARRESTED.

LOUISVILLE KY., July 21.—Jos. S. Head, Jr., cashier of the Citizens' Bank and Trust Company, of Ashland, Ky., which is now in the hands of the State Banking Commissioner for liquidation of its affairs, was arrested in the office of Sheriff Chas. J. Cronan, yesterday afternoon, where he went to give himself up after hearing that a warrant for his arrest was in the hands of the local Sheriff.

The warrant was issued by the police judge of Ashland, and charges Head with making a false statement of the bank's affairs to the Department of Banking of the State Banking Commission in his last quarterly statement. Mr. Head was admitted to bail by Judge William M. Smith, and his bond fixed at $1,500 for his appearance before the Ashland police judge August 10.

Owing to the fact that the charge against Mr. Head is a felony, and the warrant ordered the Sheriff to return him to Ashland, it was not within the power of the Sheriff to fix or accept bail. Mr. Head's wife is dangerously ill at St. Joseph's Infirmary, and as he did not wish to return to Ashland last night or to enter jail, he secured the services of Attorney Edward P. Humphrey, and habeas corpus proceedings were instituted at once. Judge Smith was found and went to the court house, where he heard a statement of the case.

Attorney Humphrey claimed Mr. Head had the right to be admitted to bail. He said the warrant did not specify when his client should be returned to Ashland, but asked Judge Smith to fix the time. The Judge said he would admit Head to bail and would stipulate in the bond that he should appear before the Ashland court August 10. After consultation, it was agreed that bond should be fixed at $1,500. Mr. Cronan said the proceedings were satisfactory to him, and he at once released Mr. Head.

Mr. Head was accompanied to the court house by Judge Emmett M. Dickson, his brother-in-law, of Paris, Ky.; former Mayor William O. Head, a kinsman, and Floyd Day, of Winchester, who is his bondsman. Mr. Head is a young man and is a native of Owen County. He has been at the Seelbach for several days.

Mr. Head said he would not discuss the matter, as it is a technicality. He said the warrant shows there is no accusation as to money taken, and that he will be exonerated of blame.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN VOCATION AND JOB.

One of the most vital services vocational guidance can render is to analyze our industries and train our youth to distinguish between a "vocation
and a job," says the Federal Bureau of Education in a statement on vocational guidance and child labor.

The statement indicates that the present movement for practical education finds greater stimulus from the industrial rather than from the educational point of view. Out of a group of 101 boys between 14 and 16 years of age in New York City a vocational survey including an analysis of the work they are doing, shows, according to the bureau; but 5 of them with an opportunity for advancement or improvement. The other 96 are in hopeless positions.

The bureau states that a study of the annual contribution of the city schools to the business interests of the community shows a considerable percentage thrown into the discard within the first month; that another large percentage goes drifting from job to job, sometimes advancing,
quite as often receding, the industries complaining that the children
the schools turn out are no good, and that the children lose courage, enthusiasm and youthful idealism in the various meaningless jobs which they are assigned.

HAS YOUR WHEAT BEEN IN- FESTED WITH HESSIAN FLY?

"Has your wheat been infested with the Hessian Fly this season?" is a question that the U. S. Department of Agriculture is now asking farmers.
The information is desired that there may be general co-operation between all concerned in reducing the devasta-tions of the fly. There is every indication that the pest will be unusually troublesome to the crop this fall.

Every wheat grower in the country who suspects that his crop has been infested is requested to send his name to the Department's Bureau of Entomology at Washington, D. C., with a request for a question blank.
The questions to be answered are merely as to whether the wheat
the wheat grower's crop was infested at certain seasons. The farmer will be asked to forward some of the infested wheat plants for examination, postage to be paid by the Government. He will also be asked to give his name, address; and the nearest railway station.

The Department is co-operating with the various State Experiment Stations in this campaign against the Hessian Fly, and in some cases the infested straw will be sent by the farmer to local stations for examination. The wheat grower can learn just where his sample of straw is to be sent when he sends his name to the Department, indicating his willingness to send the sample. The Department encourages the sender not to be afraid to forward too much of the straw, even though it has to be sent by parcel post. The upper part of the straw need not be sent, but enough above the ground should be included to get the insect in what is known as the "flaxseed" stage when the larva is incased in a hard, brown skin and somewhat resembles a flax seed. The insects will remain for a considerable time in the "flaxseed"
state during a drought and will only emerge after rains have moistened
the soil. Dry weather in the late summer tends to keep the insect in that stage, which is a fact of special importance in the North where the wheat must be sown early enough to enable the plants to stand the winter.

Probably no other insect causes
more real damage to the wheat crop in the United States than the Hessian Fly, although there are certain years when the chinch bug exceeds the fly in its devastations.
During the seasons when the fly is especially abundant hundreds of thousands of acres of wheat may be either totally destroyed or so badly injured as to reduce the yield 50 to 75 per cent. The monetary losses run far up into the millions.

A number of years ago there was in Kansas general co-operation between grain dealers, millers and farmers to restrict the ravages of this dangerous insect. According to their own estimate, over a million dollars were saved by prompt and thorough measures. This year the Department hopes to secure general co-operation throughout the country in combatting the pest. There are indications that its ravages may be severe. Already in Iowa and Oklahoma there have been threatening outbreaks of the insect.

Not only are Federal and State organizations of the Government cooperating in this campaign, but others, such as the National Millers' Federation are working to secure better control over the Hessian Fly. The individual wheat grower is asked to send his samples of infested straw before the middle of September, and sooner if possible, as after that the fly will have hatched and have entered into the wheat.

Late sowing of the seed and burning of the stubble when not seeded to grass or clover, are the only measures known to date that are effective in controlling the Hessian Fly—that is for winter-wheat growing sections.
In the spring-wheat sections, late seeding will not apply. On the contrary, the earlier it is sown in the spring the less it seems to suffer from this pest.

A more detailed explanation of late sowing for winter wheat to avoid attack by the Hessian Fly will be given in a subsequent article. The present article is merely an invitation to the wheat grower to help the Department in its campaign. The post card to be forwarded the farmer, contains enlarged illustrations of the fly in its adult and also its "flaxseed" state.

THE PLEASURE OF CAMPING.

Our people are just waking up to the pleasures of camping out on the banks of the classic Stoner. A number of parties have picked this summer at "Gass Springs" and "The Ford," and all have thoroughly enjoyed their outings. An outing of this character is much more healthful
and restful, and infinitely cheaper than the customary visit to the summer resort, and the campers invariably come home strengthened and tanned, refreshed and filled with new life, and ready for the tasks before them. No stream contains better opportunities for this purpose, or has more classic and beautiful scenery
on its banks, than "Beautiful Stoner," and we are indeed glad to note the growing prevalence of local picnicing parties on its banks.

You can always get a woman mad
by telling her that you heard her snoring.

NOTED WOMAN EVANGELIST.

Mrs. Marguerite Isabel Rice, the noted New York woman evangelist, better known all over the world as "The Girl Preacher," and who has been in every civilized and some uncivilized portions of the globe on her mission of charity, cheer and comfort, has been speaking to large audiences on the court house square.

Mrs. Rice is perhaps the most noted woman evangelist in the known world. At the tender age of fourteen, when most young girls are thinking of more frivolous things she began her work, taking up the city of New York as her starting point. In a few months she became famous. For nine years she did slum work in Greater New York, under the administrations of four Mayors, spreading cheer and comfort to inmates of the jails, State prisons, county infirmaries, and speaking sometimes three times a night for months on Broadway, New York, to crowds estimated at from ten to fifteen thousand. She has visited every portion of the United States, telling, preaching and living "practical Christianity" to thousands and thousands of people.

Mrs. Rice made her first address to the people of Paris on Saturday night, to a good sized audience, many of whom were attracted merely out of curiosity, but all of whom, fascinated by the evangelist's magic personality, remained to the end, wishing for more. On Sunday night at the same spot the audience was trebled, the news having spread to all parts of the city.

Mrs. Rice is a wonderfully impressive speaker, and the first thing apparent to the auditor is her intense sincerity. She has a habit of clothing unpleasant truths in words that burn and convince. Her discourses are aimed at all classes and especially the masses. She says "There is too much churchianity, and not enough Christianity." She mingles pathos, sarcasm, personal reminiscences and deals blows at the present-day hypocrisy in a way that compels the attention of her auditors. A verbatim report of her addresses would make "mighty interesting" reading, because in her own way, and in a most convincing way, she tells unpleasant truths, which we all know to be truths, though loath to admit it.

Mrs. Rice is a woman of intelligence, a live wire who is devoting the remainder of her life to "practical Christianity," and her talks have created a tremendous sensation in this city.

Mrs. Rice has talked to large audiences in all the principal cities in the United States, and has by personal invitation of the pastors, filled the pulpits of some of the largest and most influential churches in Greater New York and other cities. But she says her mission is to the masses, and that she would rather talk to two sinners on the street than address a fashionable audience in a fashionable church, though she has no fear of either.

In her world-tour speaking to all nationalities and to all kinds and conditions of people she has had many varied experiences, but she has never yet been insulted or her meetings in any way interrupted.

A large and appreciative audience greeted Mrs. Rice again last night and her address was as possible snapper and more brilliant than usual.

RECORD SALE OF CATTLE.

Harry Weissinger & Son, of Shelbyville, have sold to R. A. Long, the millionaire lumberman of Kansas City, sixty-two head of imported Jersey cattle for $30,000. It is reported to be the largest transaction of the kind ever made. In the lot was Fontaine's Chief, a bull that won the championship at the Chicago Live-stock Show in 1912, and for which Weissinger & Son paid W. R. Spann, of this county, $5,000. Thirty head were of mature stock, the remainder consisting of calves and heifers. The sale was made through F. F. Dow, manager of the Jersey department of Mr. Long's stock farm, near Kansas City, and to which the entire purchase was shipped yesterday.

THE LEXINGTON FAIR

The ninth annual Blue Grass Fair opened at Lexington yesterday with a big attendance at the grounds of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association.

In the three-gaited saddle horse contest, walk, trot and canter, the first prize was won by Mr. J. Jones, of North Middletown.

All of the exhibits are up to the usual standard and the show rings are bringing out the best live stock exhibits ever seen in the middle West.

AUGUST COURT DAY.

August court day, generally a slow one, was enlivened yesterday by the presence of a large crowd of farmers, who, owing to the drought, had little else to do. There was very little business done and trading on the stock markets was very light. There was but little stock on the market. Merchants reported collections slow and business dull.

The recent primary election seemed to be the principal theme of interest on the streets.

DEATHS.

HORINE.

—Edward Fisher Horine, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Horine, died at the family residence on Twelfth street Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock following a short illness. The funeral services were conducted at the residence of Mrs. Thos. Richardson, on Winchester Street, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, by Elder W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Christian Church, and the burial followed in the Paris Cemetery.

The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. W. E. Ellis, followed by burial in the Paris cemetery.

The following young women, friends of the dead girl, will act as pallbearers: Misses Alice Ewalt, May Ogden, Ollie Dennison, Maude McFarland, Stella Price, Eliza Blount, Willie McNamara and May Endicott.

—Miss Elizabeth Daughters, of Cynthia, and Mr. Elijah E. Grant, of Lexington, were married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Funk, on South Main Street, Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, by Rev. W. E. Ellis. The parties came to this city Saturday and secured license from County Clerk Pearce Paton. They will reside in Lexington.

YOUNG—KNOX.

—Dr. E. French Knox, of Wilmore, and Mrs. Julia Crane Young, were married at the home of and by Rev. O. J. Chandler, of Lexington. Dr. Knox is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knox, of Wilmore, and a brother of Dr. D. B. Knox, of Georgetown. He was formerly a well-known physician at Shawhan, this county, but moved to Wilmore, Ky., several months ago.

PROTRACTED MEETING

A protracted meeting started last night at the Stony Point school house, with a good attendance. The meeting will continue through the week.

THEATRICAL.

At the Columbia Tomorrow This afternoon and tonight at the Columbia Theatre will be shown the fourth episode of the great picture drama "The Million Dollar Mystery." This episode is entitled "The Third Story Flat," and is equally as interesting as any of the others.

EPISODE NO. 4.—"The Third Floor Flat"—With Brain and Princess Olga in command, the "Black Hundred" continues its dastradly plotting. They lure Florence to an apartment house by a letter purporting to come from her father, whom she has not seen since babyhood. But, as her "father" embraces her, she sees in the mirror many evil faces and realizes she is trapped. In this terrible situation, surrounded by villainous faces instead of shrieking or swooning, this courageous wisp of a girl plans a desperate escape and miraculous as it seems, she does escape.

OLD KNIFE FOUND.

Mr. G. T. Wagoner, who resides a few miles south of Shawhan in Bourbon County, recently found an old rusty case knife embedded in the heart of a tree which he believes to be over a hundred years old. Mr. Wagoner says the knife was evidently embedded in the tree when it was a sapling and must have been placed there by some of the early settlers of Bourbon County.

TOBACCO SHOW AT STATE FAIR.

The prospects of holding a splendid Tobacco Show at the Kentucky State Fair was never better. Those in charge of this department have been encouraged by reason of the fact that quite a lot of tobacco has been topped during the past ten days. This should give plenty of time to thoroughly mature and be ready for exhibit by the 14th of September. The exhibit of old tobacco has always been a good one, but the new exhibit has always been deficient in quantity. There is nothing that will advertise your State and county more than a good tobacco show, and the Superintendent of the Tobacco Department of the State Fair, Mr. Evan S. Rees, of Springfield, Ky., stands ready at all times to advise with the farmers of the State relative to making entry and exhibit.

ONE ON THE HELLO GIRL.

One of the handsomest girls in Paris, (Ky.) is one of the "hello girls" who juggles the plugs and cords at the switchboard of a certain telephone exchange in the city of Paris, (Ky.) After a round of routine work all day and part of the night before, she went to church in Millersburg, Sunday night. Toward the close of the service Nature asserted its supremacy, and she went to sleep. When the services closed the minister arose and gave out the announcement: "Let us sing hymn No. 341." The tired young woman awoke just in time to hear the number called, yawned, and, to the consternation of her escort, who had been too much absorbed in the sermon to notice his companion's lapse into slumberland, said: "Line's busy; call again." Explanations were made and accepted, and all went along as merrily as the proverbial marriage bell.

While we are in the telephone field we might as well give this one: Several days ago a popular young boy of this city accepted a position with this same telephone company. Yesterday he was sent out with the repairmen and worked progressed nicely until he was told by one of the men, who is known as a joker, to go back and tell Mr. _____ to send him "a left-hand wire untangler." Proud to have an opportunity to show his worth, the young man sallied forth in quest of the instrument. Early this morning he was still in search of the "untangler."

County Judge C. A. McMillan has appointed Mr. J. N. Metzger, of Paris, as administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Metzger. Mr. Metzger qualified with Mr. Clarence K. Thomas, agent for the U. S. Fidelity and Guarantee Company, as surety, in the sum of $2,000.

J. W. DAVIS & CO.

MAY HAVE ICE FAMINE.

The present low stage of water in Stoner Creek, the principal source of Paris' water supply, is causing considerable apprehension, and unless the situation is soon relieved by heavy rains, the people of the city may find themselves confronted not alone by a water famine, but an ice famine, unless other sources of supply can be found.

There is a possibility that the successful operation of the Paris Ice Manufacturing Co.' plant will be seriously hampered by the difficulty experienced in securing a good supply of water. Unless conditions improve the company may be compelled to shut down.

Superintendent Newton Mitchell, of the Paris Water Company, has issued a warning to patrons to be as economical as possible in the use of water, and especially in using street hose. There is at present a good supply of water available, but the continued drouth may soon reduce that.

SPECIAL WARNING TO THE PARIS PEOPLE.

Come early to-morrow. The Million Dollar Mystery at The Columbia Theatre.

WILL HAVE TWO ELECTIONS.

Speculation as to what action County Judge McMillan would take in the matter of the "dry" and "wet" petitions presented to him Saturday for his consideration was dispelled yesterday, when, after taking up the petition of the "dry" at the morning session of the court, he ordered an local option election held in Bourbon County on Monday, Sept. 28, to take the sense of the voters of the county on the matter of continuing or discontinuing the sale of liquor in the county. The petition was presented by William Myall and others. The petition contained 1,734 names.

Judge McMillan then took up the consideration of the petition presented by the "wets," asking for a separate election for the City of Paris on the same question. An adjournment until one o'clock was taken to allow for a consultation of authorities. When court reconvened, Judge McMillan, after hearing citation of authorities and examining two witnesses, ordered that a separate election be held in the city of Paris on Saturday, Sept. 26, on the same question of local option. Tuesday, Sept. 18, was designated as a special registration day for voters of the city who desire to vote on either side of the question. The petition of the "wets," which contained 511 names, was presented by T. F. Brannon and others.

FORMER PARIS GIRL SUES FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Breach of promise of marriage is alleged in a petition filed in the Jefferson Circuit Court at Louisville by Miss Sena Muir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vol Muir, formerly of Paris, against Alex. Johnson, of Louisville.
Judgment for $10,000 is asked for in the petition.

It is alleged in the petition that Miss Muir and Johnson were engaged to be married Christmas Day, 1906,
but that the wedding day was deferred
at the request of the defendant
because of his impaired financial condition until the following summer.
For some reason not made plain to the plaintiff, it is alleged, the wedding was again deferred by the defendant until autumn arrived, and numerous times thereafter until June, 1914, when the defendant entered into a marriage with Miss Flors Ballard. It is averred that at no time during the long courtship and up to the time of his marriage with another, did the defendant inform the plaintiff that it was not his purpose to keep his agreement to marry her, and that at no time during these long years did she receive the attentions of any other man or men.

THE TWENTY YEAR TEST.

"Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Geo. W.
Brock, publisher of the Enterprise,
Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.'
During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times, and it has never disappointed anyone." For sale by all dealers.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

There is a whole lot in a name.
Twenty years ago the section hands
on the railroads wore cheap outfits known as Sand Hog and Grease Monk suits. Now the railroad officials are wearing the same thing, but they have changed the name to Palm Beach Suits.

A man may have a little respect for an ornery mutt who sets fire to an orphan asylum. But a guy who catches four of a kind when you are holding a pat full house is seven degrees lower than a Siwash Indian who feeds his baby on snakes.

Charity and First Aid to the Heathen should begin at home. While Mother is out collecting funds to Educate the Solomon Islanders, Father will wake up and discover that his pet comb and brush and filled with Mother's hair, and Father will proceed to forget all about his Education and cuss a blue streak in seventeen South Sea dialects.

We may be wrong, but we will always maintain that any woman who has to carry a gun to Defend Her Honor hasn't much to defend.

There are all sorts of people in the world, including the man who gets a lot of consolation out of the rumor that Jawn Dee Rockefeller can't eat anything.

The Reformers have had a lot of sport pasting white paper over the exposed limbs of the show ladies in tights, as said ladies capered nimbly on the bill boards. But the Reformers can't fasten an opaque drapery on the skirts worn by the women on sunny days.

One trouble with the world is that the fellows who are most in need of advice are those who are always trying to give it away.

When a boy hears two men speak of the Good Old Days he imagines
they have reference to the period when there were knot holes in the fences around the big league ball parks.

A woman who thinks she is marrying for money often realizes later on that she is earning about 16 per week for 18 hours' work per day.

What has become of the old-fashioned saloon keeper who used to give away two pretzels with every nickle
can of beer.

We are traveling pretty fast. If you mention "The Pilgrim's Progress" to the average boy of today he would think you were talking about some new game.

THE CASE OF L. L. CANTELOU.

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Claran-don, Texas, is similar to tha of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
He says, "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

I saw the new pantalettes yesterday. They fasten around the ankle with a ribbon and look very sloppy.
The ones I saw were black lace and the wearer sported silk stockings.
P. S.—They may become very popular as they do not hide a blame thing.

A fat woman will squeeze her feet into tight shoes and keep two maids busy hauling to get her fastened into a straight front and get the pacing harness adjusted. Then she will let the maids strangle her into a tight brassiere that would kill a male person in two minutes. And after all this she will feel so comfortable
when she is dressed that she will go out and have a man arrested because he is driving a horse with a high check rein.

CONSTIPATION CAUSES SICK- NESS.

Don't permit yourself to become constipated, as your system immediately begins to absorb poison from the backed-up waste matter. Use Dr.
King's New Life Pills and keep well.
There is no better safe-guard against illness. Just take one dose to-night.

BENEFITS OF TRAVELING.

Any man who makes a study of the newspaper personal columns during the summer must feel that the American people are doing an enormous lot of traveling.

It is not merely that the millionaires are on the go, flitting hither and you to kill ennui, anxious to be somewhere where they are not. Even the little country town shows that simple hearted people of very moderate means are visiting here and there and taking long journeys.

The type of person who used to stick closely at home year after year has almost disappeared. A generation ago it was common to see old timers who boasted that they had not slept outside their homes for 10, 20 or 30 years. The inertia that settled over them was appalling. It seemed an unsettling and revolutionary effort for them to pack a little grip and go over to the next town to spend a week-end with a relative.

Of all the modern ways of spending money on things not strictly necessities, traveling probably brings the largest returns of intelligence. Narrowness is a result of hearing only one point of view. The moment a fellow stirs around and gets into another state and another section, he begins to see that his home folks are not the only guardians of wisdom.
He learns that there are other points of view and many of them are good ones.

The benefits derived from travel dicer greatly. Some people on their return can talk of little save of the food they got at the hotels and the comfort or discomfort provided by the railroads. To others every tree in the fields, every building, every person met, suggests subtle and interesting differences from the scenery, the manners, and the customs of the home environment. Such persons also get a great many good business suggestions. The farmer finds an object lesson in every field, and the merchant a selling idea in every street.

INFECTION AND INSECT BITES DANGEROUS.

Mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which breed quickly in garbage
pails, ponds or stagnant matter, barns, musty places, etc., are carriers of disease. Every time they bite you, they inject poison into your system from which some dread disease may result.
Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects Cuts, Bruises and Sores. You cannot afford to be without it in your home. Money back if not satisfied. Only 25c, at your Druggist.

COWS AND WILD ONIONS.

Cows will eat wild onions in preference to grass sometimes. At least, judging from the milk when they come home at night, they rarely pass a bunch without "sampling it." Now comes a contributor to the Progressive Farmer with this declaration—it is worth trying where the pest is grimly crowding everything else out:
Sheep will eat onions in preference to any grass or clover known and never will allow an onion to grow to seeding height, unless there are more onions than they can eat. No matter how many onions the sheep may eat, the flesh, when butchered, never tastes or smells of onion. Encourage the sheep industry, and they will eradicate, or at least keep down, the onions and pal well for privilege of doing so.—News-Banner.

HOW CHILDREN GROW

Children grow by nourishment—not overloaded stomachs or rich foods but qualities that are readily converted into life-sustaining blood; too often their digestive powers cannot procure these qualities from ordinary foods which results in weakness, dullness and sickness.

If your children are under-size, underweight, catch cold easily, are languid, backward, pale or frail, give them Scott's Emulsion which is pure medicinal nourishment. It sharpens the appetite, builds healthy flesh, firm muscles and active brains. Scott's is growing-food for children. Refuse alcoholic substitutes.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ills it has no equal.
For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority.
Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold." At

An Open Letter.

DEAR FRIEND:—

Do you feel run down? Do you feel as though that part of you which gives life, strength, health and vigor is not there? Do you wake up tired in the morning? Do you have an indescribable weariness all the time? Are you nervous, at all times irritable? Do you ever have the blues and fall into fits of despondency without any cause?

If so, I want to have a little confidential talk with you. I understand your trouble. I know its cause; I know its nature; and I know its cure. Such troubles as these rarely existed among the American Indians of the past. I will tell you why.

Because there grows in this country roots and herbs into which nature has combined all her curative agencies. Just as Nature has combined into the egg all the nutritive human organs, so it has combined into these roots and herbs all the properties which are necessary to the healing of the diseased human organs.

At great expense I have been able to have these roots and herbs gathered and I now have them in my laboratory. I wish that I had the power to spread the news by one mighty proclamation and announce to the people of this country what a great blessing it is to them. I wish that all who suffer with diseases that their local physician has been unable to cure, could know of the marvelous healing power of this simple remedy, gathered from Nature's storehouse.

I send this remedy to you just as I get it from Nature—I do not allow its magic power to be trifled with or lessened by mixing it with ordinary drugs or chemicals. You take simply Brown's Native Herb in Liquid Form. Quaff this cup of life and the result is simply indescribable. You feel no more weariness you felt before. Your step regains the elasticity of younger days. Your complexion becomes clearer and healthier. You feel a vigor and a desire to do something, whereas before you felt weariness. Your eyes become brighter and reflect the animation with which your entire system becomes charged. Your spirit lightens and the whole world becomes bright and beautiful. You feel an ability in yourself which naturally comes from the feeling of strength and power.

You may think that I am just talking and that I do not mean what I say in regard to this most remarkable remedy. But the remarkable offer I make you ought to be enough to convince you that I not only know what I am talking about and mean all I say, but that I am willing to back it up in a substantial manner. Remember that I agree that if, after taking ten days treatment of this remedy, you are not satisfied with the results, we want you to return the balance and we will return your money to you without a word. You must know that I could not go to this expense if I did not know that you would receive from it the greatest and most beneficial results.

Now I am going to make a still further inducement. If you will give this marvelous remedy a trial, I will let you have six bottles for $5.00, or 3 bottles for $2.50. The regular price is $1.00 a bottle. I am making this remarkable and unusual generous offer for the purpose of getting you to give Brown's Native Herbs in Liquid Form a trial. It is worth something to me for you to know the marvelous virtue of this remedy.

As soon as its wonderful efficiency becomes generally known, people will write to us imploring us to sell them a small portion of it at any price, instead of our writing to them asking them to give it a trial.

One thing let me impress upon you, and that is that you not let your system become weaker and weaker and get in a worse and worse condition before taking treatment. Take treatment before it is forever too late. Brown's Native Herbs in Liquid Form will revitalize you and make you a new person. Give it a trial and you will bless the day that I first wrote you in regard to this most marvelous of nature's medicine.

I hope that you will give this matter your serious consideration. Matters of life and death should not be treated lightly. I have the deepest sympathy for all who suffer, and yet I must confess that the greater portion of the suffering of which mankind is called upon to endure, is the result of indecision and delay upon the part of the patient in taking treatment. Why the suffering mortal should refuse to take hold of the hand which is outstretched to help, is a thing which I cannot understand. It seems to me that any sufferer would hail with gratitude a discovery like this one. Indeed I must say that they are hailing it with much thankfulness.

Are you sick? I have a remedy that will cure you. I would be grossly untruthful if I should fail to tell you what Brown's Native Herbs in Liquid Form will do for you. But after I have said all I can say, and have laid the matter before you to the best of my ability, it will not be my fault if you let your present state of health continue until the dead line is passed and you hear the awful words, "Too Late," ringing in your ears forever.

I am anxious that you act upon this matter at once in taking Brown's Native Herbs in Liquid Form without further delay, not only on account of the condition of your health, but on account of the limited supply of this remedy. I cannot tell how fast the news will travel of its unequalled efficacy to overcome the ills of the human body. So heed the warning. Seize the opportunity while you can.

I also wish to say that Brown's Native Herbs in Liquid Form is the greatest physic known, and those in the habit of taking salts, pills and cathartics to clean the system should go to their druggist and get a large $1.00 bottle and see what a real pleasure it is to take a medicine that will do as you want it to. All druggists sell it.

Most sincerely your friend,
ARNOLD DOUGLAS BROWN.

In the Second Row Back

The ominous tinkle of the little clock striking the hour made them both look up. He was first to speak. As he drew from his pocket two slips of pasteboard, his words came in dull even tones.

"Here are the theater tickets I bought last week. If you care to go, we may as well pass the time there as in any other way."

Before answering she closed her book and placed it carefully upon the table. She gave no hint of haste nor of the response that passed through her at his words.

"Since you have the tickets, yes."

Just as she feared, he caught her wrist as she passed and held her in a firm grasp.

"Marian, what sense is there in this stubbornness? You know that I do not care so much for the reason of your going as I do your not telling me."

She tried to free herself. "That is not true," she gasped. "You want to know why I went there. I'd have told you, some time, if you'd trusted me."

"But, Marian, I hear you've been going there for a month, and I've known nothing of it. You knew I'd hate a thing like that."

"Your informant ought to have found out more. Why not have him try again? I'll never tell you, never. No matter what happens, I'll—never—tell—you."

He dropped her hand at that, and she went on into the other room. When she returned she had all her emotions well in control.

They reached their seats in the theater just as the curtain went up. In the half light Marian removed her hat and coat, and tried to settle herself to gather the threads thrown out in the first act.

Suddenly into the strained silence of the audience came a voice. "She says she doesn't love him but she'll marry him."

It was a girl's voice, and there was a familiar ring in it to Marian. "Did she say she'd marry him?" This time it was an older, more cautious voice. "Yes, but she does not love him."

There was a stir and a wavering titter among those within hearing. Marian sighed and wondered if ever again she should feel so much interest in anything as one could hear in that girl's voice. The play held nothing for her. She wondered how it was with James. To her the pretense of enjoyment was becoming a burden and she wished that they had not come.

"She says she does not love him, but he'll never know. Oh, it's awfully exciting!" Again Marian felt the stir in the audience, again she longed to see the play with the heart and eyes of the girl. If she could keep her thoughts upon the actors she must forget, for a little while, her heartache. "He says he's a buttinski. Oh, he's the funniest."

The curtain fell, the lights flashed up. Marian found herself in a state of painful bewilderment. Sometimes when she and James talked it over between the acts, they could come to a better understanding of the play. She took a cautious glance at her husband. He was sitting severely straight and still.

Marian gave up all thought of following the play. An unexpected tragedy had come into her own life, and nothing could blot it from her mind. Each moment she was becoming more frightened at the outcome of her quarrel. They could not go on like this.

"Hector says he'll stand by her to the end, if he dies for it." It was the girl's voice again in explanation.

Marian felt a relaxation of her tense nerves. Oh, what a time she should have had to keep James quiet if—She was back at the old worry again. It pressed harder. She began to believe that she could not bear it much longer. She would have to tell James, but things could never be the same again. He had doubted her and he had been so cruel about it that he had forced her to tell.

Marian glanced at her husband. He cleared his throat and changed his position. The voice in continued conversation was tantalizingly familiar. Cautiously Marian moved her head. Just a little way, and then—

"Oh, mamma, there's the lady that comes to Helen's to give us the dancing lessons. Yes, the one right here in the silk dress, the shepherd's check. Oh, she is just lovely!"

"That's her husband; Helen showed him to me yesterday. He is awfully good looking."

Marian moved closer to the chair next the aisle and whispered: "I—I wanted to buy that Gibbons for your birthday, James, with my own money. I knew you wouldn't like my doing—"

"Don't, dear," murmured James.

He kept a firm hold of her hand, pressing it gently now and again. She knew that he was ruining her glove but she was content. And while the last act held little more for her than the first and second, she could guess that it ended happily. And it gave a pretty glow to the reconciliation that had, in the past 15 minutes, changed things for her so materially.

Discontent, if there is a reason for it, is a hopeful and useful sign.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WELL?

Many Paris People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys.

The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. Well kidneys remove impurities. Weak kidneys allow impurities to multiply.

No kidney ill should be neglected. There is possible danger in delay. If you have backache or urinary troubles.

If you are nervous, dizzy or worn out. Begin treating your kidneys at once.

Use a proven kidney remedy. None endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills.

Recommended by thousands.

Proved by Winchester testimony. A. G. McCauley, 134 S. Maple St., Winchester, Ky., says: "I had pains through my kidneys and the kidney secretions were scanty and painful in passage. On the recommendation of a friend, I got a box of Doan's Pills and the results of their use convinced me of their merit. I now gladly confirm what I said about them before."

The above is not an isolated case. Mr. McCauley is only one of many in this vicinity who have gratefully endorsed Doan's. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. McCauley had. 50c all stores. SUMMER CONSTIPATION DANGEROUS.

Constipation in Summer-time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much cold water, thus injuring your stomach. Colic, Fever, Ptomaine Poisoning and other ills are natural results. Po-Do-Lax will keep you well, as it increases the Bile, the natural laxative, which aids the bowels of the congested poisonous waste. Po-Do-Lax will make you feel better. Pleasant and effective. Take a dose to-night. 50c, at your Druggist.

SUMMER COUGHS ARE DANGEROUS.

Summer coughs are dangerous. They indicate low vitality and often lead to serious Throat and Lung Troubles, including Consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery will relieve the cough or cold promptly and prevent complications. It is soothing and antiseptic and makes you feel better at once. To delay is dangerous—get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery at once. Your money back if not satisfied. 50c and $1.00 bottles at your Druggist.

NOT SO STRANGE AFTER ALL.

You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. HONEY CROP POOR.

The honey crop throughout Garrard and Lincoln counties is proving unsatisfactory to bee handlers, the lack of white clover blossoms being in part the cause of the deficiency. One Garrard county farmer, who has given considerable attention to bees, reports that, having as many as sixty hives, he only extracted one pound from forty-five of them. He reports the honey darker than usual this season.

NEWS OF MILLERSBURG

—Squire E. P. Thamasson is on the sick list.

—Miss Edna Clarke is spending two weeks' vacation at Swango Springs.

—Mrs. F. E. Bruce, who was operated on at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Lexington, last Friday, is doing nicely.

—Miss Virginia Hutchcraft returned Wednesday, after a several weeks' visit to Louisville and Indianapolis.

—Mr. John Shay returned Friday from Lexington, where he had been for several days under treatment of Dr. Barrow.

—Mrs. Minnie C. Hurst and family returned Wednesday from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cochran, at Elizaville.

—Mrs. Mollie Slack returned Thursday to her home at Sharpburg, after spending two weeks at the bedside of her brother, Mr. J. J. Peed, who continues about the same.

—Mr. Adam Ingels has resigned his position as clerk at the Crab Orchard Hotel, at Crab Orchard Springs, and returned to Millersburg last Thursday to remain.

—Mrs. J. R. Tankersley, of Chattanooga, Tenn., arrived Sunday to make this place her future home. Mr. Tankersley recently purchased the barber shop of Mr. T. T. Bently.

—Mrs. D. B. Judy and mother-in-law, Mrs. Minnie Rule, accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Corrington, the latter of Indianapolis, Ind., have returned to their home at Middleboro. They have been here since the interment of Mrs. Judy.

—There was some disappointment experienced in the Millersburg Chautauqua Thursday afternoon when it was learned that Maymie Wynne Cox, the delineator of negro dialect and banjo lady, could not be present. An improvised program was arranged, made up partly of local talent, and a lecture on "Home" by Mr. Fish, manager of the Flemingsburg Chautauqua, which was well received. In the evening a local prelude was made up of Misses Alma Duke Jones, pianist, Lucy Jones, vocalist and Annette Hurst, reader, which was well received, and each young lady received numerous applause. All were amply rewarded for the time occupied and in the o'loss of Maymie Wynne Cox when Hon. Alf Taylor, speaker of the evening, was introduced, taking for his subject, "The World's Greatest Question." Mr. Taylor is perhaps the most profound thinker that ever stood upon the Millersburg platform. Every utterance abounds in beautiful language. His thought is deep.

—The Chautauqua was continued Friday afternoon at 2:30 by the Crescent Club, a quartette of four young ladies. These ladies gave a delightful, light parlor entertainment. The violinist was good and played some artistic numbers in a creditable manner. The vocalist and reader did not come up to the full measure of the other work of the Chautauqua. In the evening ex-Ambassador to Mexico, Hon. Henry Lane Wilson, addressed us on the Mexican situation. Mr. Wilson has occupied 13 years in foreign affairs representing the U. S. Government. He addressed us on the Mexican situation and gave a history of the war for the past four years, and also a brief history of the country for the past thirty years. In connection with this history he brought forward a number of facts with which we are not familiar and which the newspapers have not published.

On Saturday morning at 9:30 the athletic work of the Chautauqua was held on the M. M. I. campus. There were 13 various runs and jumps for with good prizes were offered, and were assigned at the evening entertainment, the Smith Bros. receiving the larger number of them. This work was under the management of Messrs. Williams and Sutherland, who have been with us during the time of the Chautauqua. Considerable enthusiasm prevailed during the time of the meeting. In the afternoon at 2:30 we were greeted by the Mendelsshon Quartette made up entirely of Italians. They furnished the prelude for the lecture, playing for half an hour.

We were then introduced to Theron Alvin Harmon, of Yankton, S. C., who delivered perhaps the most pleasing address thus far, taking as his subject the "Way of the Open Road," which led us through all the various phases of life and character. He is a fluent speaker. In the evening we enjoyed full concert by the Mendelsshons and Mad. Zoe Pearl Park, which was decidedly the best musical aggregation thus far of the Chautauqua. The violin solo was sweet and pure. The pure contralto voice of Mad. Park captivates all, she sang with much ease and grace. The harpist in his exquisite manipulations, was also the recipient of numerous encores. His technique was exquisite, and we hope to have them with us another season. At 10:45 Sunday, Dr. Crossfield, of Transylvania University, conducted devotional exercises under the big tent. The music was furnished by the local choir. Dr. Crossfield did not come into our midst as a stranger. He preached a most brilliant discourse. On Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:30 the Intrnational Male Quartette gave a full concert. They are also among the good numbers of the Chautauqua. They responded to a number of encores and were exceedingly liberal with their program.

There are a large number of visitors, but owing to lack of space we are obliged to omit.

Ex-Ambassador General John H. Atwood, of Kansas, addressed the large assemblage at the Chautauqua Sunday evening at eight o'clock, taking for his subject, "The Unrest of the Times." He was by far the most forceful speaker on the Chautauqua program, and his address won high praise from his auditors. The musical program rendered by the National Quartette was a distinct feature of the program, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

COMPLAINTS OF RATES.

Charges of freight rate discrimination in favor of Winchester, Paris and Nicholas at the expense of Richmond are made against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company and fifty-nine other carriers in a suit just filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington by Attorney J. Van Norton, of Louisville, for the Richmond Commercial Club.

The rates from the north and west, it is alleged, unduly favor Paris and Nicholasville, while those from the east favor Winchester. It is charged that the rates from Eastern points to the Winchester rates plus the full local rate, between Winchester and Richmond. An equitable adjustment is asked.—Louisville Times.

DR. CLARKE'S WILL PROBATED.

The last will and testament of the late Dr. C. J. Clarke, the well-known Paris druggist, who died on July 27, was admitted to probate in Judge McMillan's Court Friday. The will, which was witnessed by Frank Roche and H. D. Alexander, after directing the payment of all debts, devises all his property, real and personal, to his wife, Mrs. Nannie Nicholas Clarke, and nominates her as executrix of his estate. The Court was requested to require no bond of her, and asks that no inventory or appraisal of the estate be made.

ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT.

James Sanders, a white man residing on West Street, was presented in Judge McMillan's Court, on complaint of his wife, who alleged that her hubby had cursed, struck and bruised her. Sanders was arrested by Sheriffs Marshall and McClintock. Sanders alleged that his wife had been keeping bad company, and that he felt called upon to administer a reproof. After giving the prisoner a good lecturing Judge McMillan dismissed him with a warning to be good in the future.

Obsessed with the idea that he had suddenly fallen heir to most of the valuable real estate in and around Paris, Chas. Johnson, colored, was haled before Judge McMillan the same day Sanders appeared. Johnson had been absorbing what Luke McLuke designated as "thirst capsules," and when they took effect he became converted from a comparatively poor man into a real estate king, and had a half-dozen deals on hand, one of them for the sale of the Court House to a hotel-building syndicate. He was placed in care of Jailor Farris to come out of his dream.

When Torny Romey shook the sandman's dust out of his eyes at the Central Hotel Friday morning, and began to take an inventory of his worldly possessions, he discovered that his wealth, $8.56, had taken flight on the wings of the morning. By some strange mischance the money was found buried in a sock belonging to his roommate, Thos. Underbell, who was arrested by Patrolman King. Romey got his money, and Underbell got thirty days in jail.

LOOKED LIKE TOTAL ABSTINENCE.

Coming back from the Thaviu Band concert at the Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon, Conductor John Duvall, who pulls the throttle on the Interurban's fast mail line in this city had a merry crowd of young people aboard. They were discussing a riddle from prunes to pickles, and of course, the tango and all the dances came in for a proper share of attention. In fact a majority of the young people were of the younger society set, who patronize the dance in all its forms. Some one mentioned the popular crusade against the show-it-all style of dresses affected by the girls, when one demure maiden in a rear seat who had hitherto not figured largely in the wordfest, piped up: "I realize that women are by nature and instinct bound to go in for adornment in the matter of dress, but they are getting more and more extravagant—recklessly extravagant, I might add. I believe in temperance in dress." Now it happened that that was not a temperance crowd. One bold, independent maid spoke up: "Temperance is all right. I believe in temperance myself, but what with the cobweb stockings, the keep-in-the-shade skirts, and the open-front shirt waists, it looks more to me like the women were going in for the total abstinence."

And the car rolled on, while a few bachelors in the crowd craned their necks every time a sunny crossing was passed.

What has become of the old-fashioned boy who used to wipe his nose on his coat sleeve?

BETTER BABIES CONTEST.

The Better Babies Contest, which was conducted by the Child Hygiene Committee of the Health and Welfare League of Bourbon County, closed Friday afternoon with a delightful program in the auditorium of the Paris City School.

The contest was carried on according to the standard of the Better Babies' Bureau of the Woman's Home Companion. There were fifty entries in the contest, thirty-six of whom scored ninety points and more.

The baby boy making the highest score was John Gilkey, aged months, who scored 98 points. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilkey, of this city. The girl baby who scored highest was Mary Templin Faulkner, aged twelve months, who scored 97½, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Faulkner, of this city. Mrs. Faulkner was Miss Fairy Templin.

Mrs. C. O. Hinton, vice president of the league, presided at the meeting, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Whitley. Rev. W. E. Ellis pronounced the invocation, and Miss Linda Neville, of Lexington, gave a talk on "Baby's Eyes and Others," in her capacity of Executive Secretary of the Kentucky Society for the Prevention of Blindness. Mrs. R. L. Foster sang a group of songs in a charming manner, and Mr. R. M. Allen, of the Kentucky Experiment Station, talked on "The Care of Milk in the Home." His talk was very practical and helpful. Mrs. Sutherland contributed two beautiful lullabies with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Whitley and violin by Miss Lucille Price. Rev. George H. Harris pronounced the benediction.

The medals were awarded by Mrs. Whitley, also diplomas to the babies making the highest score in each of the three classes, and certificates to all babies who were examined.

The following babies were examined and marked according to the official score card of the Woman's Home Companion: Between six and twelve months, Joe Mackey Thornton Millersburg, 91 1-2; James Thornton Swinford, 92 1-2; William Woods, 93; Lawrence W. Miss Minnie Robinson, of Berea, arrived Saturday to enter the Hospital Training School for Nurses.

PARIS MAN A HERO.

If the Carnegie medal for heroism isn't bestowed upon Harry Jeffers, agent of the Kentucky Traction and Terminal Company, at their Fifth Street station, in this city, it will not be because he hasn't proved worthy of it.

That Jeffers risked his life to save the lives of many others in an effort to prevent a collision between a passenger interurban car and a freight car, is the story told by passengers en route to Frankfort, Sunday.

The motorman on the passenger car, seeing that a collision was bound to come, leaped from the car. Jeffers knowing that unless the car was brought to a stand and that very quickly, many passengers might be killed, rushed from his seat to the platform deserted by the motorman. He succeeded in reversing the lever and was setting the brakes when the cars came together with a slight jar. No damage was done to either car. Jeffers' presence of mind and his promptness in acting prevented the loss of lives or serious injury to many. Jeffers bears his honors very lightly, and says he merely did what seemed to him to be his duty, and had no thought of being a hero.

THAVIU'S BAND GIVES DELIGHTFUL CONCERT.

Those who attended the concert given at the Paris Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon by the Thaviu Band were given a genuine musical treat. The band rendered a program of classic and popular selections that was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by a large crowd. The band is a high-class musical organization. The vocal selections by the Thaviu Popular Singers was one of the most enjoyable features of the excellent program and the responded to several encores. The following program was rendered:

- PART I
1. March—"King Karl;" Ellenberg.
2. Waltz—"Souvenir de Bade Baden;" Bosquet.
3. Overture—"William Tell;" Rossini.
4. Coronet Solo—"Inflammatus;" form "Stabat Mater;" Rossini.
5. Selection of English and Scotch Melodies; Godfrey.
PART II
6. "Old Kentucky Home;" Delby.
7. Soprano Solo—"Aria" from "Traviata;" Verdi.
8. Popular Up-to-Date Songs; by Thaviu's Popular Singers.
9. Characteristic—"By the Suwannee River;" Middleton.
10. Trio from "Faust;" Gounod—Miss Sebel, Sig. Geoccone and Sig. Modesti.

I don't know much about St. Peter. But if he is the sort of man I think he is, there will be more Cheerful Liars than Truthful Grouches pass through the Parly Gates.
